Burrell
Family McDonald's

Dear Burrell Family Management and Crew,

I began working in McDonald's restaurants when I was 16 years old alongside my father, mother, brothers and sisters. Though much has changed about our business over the years, one thing that has remained constant is that this is a business about serving others.

I do not just mean serving hamburgers to our customers – I mean serving each of you, our family of employees, first. Life gets messy, and we want our family business to be a source of support and assistance in times of need.

Though that support can take many forms, we've found that one of the best ways to help is through connecting our employees to fantastic local organizations in each of our communities that are equipped to serve you and your family. We've created this Community Resource Guide as a tool to make those connections easier.

As you flip through this book, you will notice that we have identified trusted organizations throughout the region that may be able to serve you in a time of need. Your General Manager, Patch Supervisor and our Human Resource Director would be honored to assist you in using this list to make connections that can help you.

I am more and more convinced each day that it truly is "better to give than to receive." My hope and prayer is that our emphasis on serving others can make the world a better place. I am excited to see how this Guide will be used - even if it helps improve just one person's life, I will be incredibly grateful.

All the best,

Tom Burrell

Your McDonald's Owner-Operator
